PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Product marketer who has owned launches, positioning and lifecycle programs for fintech and SaaS products since 2018, across Africa, North America and Europe. I build the launch plan, run the lifecycle flows and report the numbers back to the team. Most of my work sits in emerging markets, including a fintech growth role at Bujeti (YC W23) and a five-country academy launch across Nigeria, Ghana, Kenya, Rwanda and Angola. I have no professional trading or prediction markets experience. I was a retail crypto investor in 2021 and I write for users who decide under pressure.
