PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Product marketer who builds positioning and messaging playbooks from scratch at startup speed, not someone who waits for a mature process to run. Specialist in taking a technical product with real capability and unclear market narrative and building the competitive differentiation, launch cadence, and content system that makes the case for it. Work has contributed to $10M+ in qualified pipeline and 15+ product launches across B2B SaaS, FinTech, and AI-infrastructure companies. Builds and ships on the same AI-native stack (Claude Code, n8n, MCP) that a fast-moving PMM+DevRel team would recognize as how the best teams work now. More at jameppraise.xyz/work/dash0.

Selected Achievements:
