PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Growth marketer who builds partnerships into repeatable acquisition channels, not one-off wins, and holds both halves of the job: the creative campaign and the attribution report behind it. Work has driven double-digit pipeline lift from partnership channels, taken paid acquisition to sub-$0.50 CAC, and scaled multi-country distribution across fintech, B2B SaaS, and consumer-facing brands. AI-native by default: builds and ships on Claude Code, n8n, and MCP-based automation as part of daily growth work, not as a separate initiative. More at jameppraise.xyz/work/elevenlabs.

Selected Achievements:

- Built Reform's Zuko integration partnership into 11% of new pipeline, then generalized the mechanics into a creator/agency incentive framework and co-marketing playbook designed to repeat with new partners.
 - Drove 14% of FunnelEnvy's new qualified pipeline from partnerships, measured against a cross-brand attribution stack (GA4, Looker Studio, HubSpot) built specifically to stop single-channel overcounting.
 - Ran paid acquisition at CIL to 2-3x ROAS with CAC below $0.50 on $1.5K-$15K monthly budgets, while building AWS, Google, and Microsoft partnerships that fed a 5-country Academy launch.
 - Generated 1,331 MQLs in 6 months and grew B2B customers 500% in one quarter at Bujeti through positioning, lifecycle, and partnership-led acquisition work.
 - Built multi-channel distribution and partnership frameworks (NGOs, feminist collectives, health networks) for Komfot Health across three African markets, navigating institutional partner approval cycles distinct from standard co-marketing deals.
