PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Product marketer who defines categories before competing in them. Repeated pattern: taking a product where the buyer doesn't yet have language for what they need, building the positioning, ICP, and launch strategy from first principles, and proving it with pipeline. Full-lifecycle owner, from market research and segmentation through pricing, launch, and growth, across B2B SaaS, FinTech, and deep-tech companies. Builds and ships on AI-native tooling (Claude Code, n8n, MCP) as part of daily product marketing work, not as a separate initiative. More at jameppraise.xyz/work/wp-engine.
