PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Product marketer with 8 years across marketing, growth and product marketing, mostly in B2B SaaS. I own how a product is positioned, packaged and sold. I've repositioned products around a narrower buyer, built competitor pages and sales collateral that reps use, and sat in the revenue seat myself as a CRO, so I write enablement from the rep's side of the call. I work across North America, Europe and Africa. I also run my own AI content production system, which lets a small team ship at the volume of a much larger one.
