Professional Summary

Content and growth marketer who writes data-led content for B2B and SaaS products and tracks what it brings in. I publish Marketing In Action (MIA), a newsletter with 5,000+ subscribers in 86 countries, where I turn benchmarks and operator playbooks into content people forward. I pull my own numbers through Google Analytics 4, Looker Studio, HubSpot and Lightdash, I have planned and hosted webinars from promo to follow-up, and I run an AI-assisted content workflow that produces 10+ distribution outputs from one asset while the copy still reads like a person wrote it.
